“ Dear Shea, I am sorry for the loss of your grandmother. Your grandfather and my mother Naomi Walker Phillips were cousins. We lived years at Mosby by where your grandparents lived. We used to stop in and visit with them. They also came to our reunions held in Liberty. If I remember oorrectly, you used to come with them at times. I probably will not be able to make the memeorial service, but did want to touch base with you. Your grandparents were great people and now they are having a party as well as with your father. Thoughts and prayers with you and yours from myself and my siblings, Joyce, Jackie and Chuck.
